Love, Discomfort

and the OMEN!

Dear Love,

I think I'm finally begining to understand you a little better. When we're in love we constantly skirt the boundaries of our own destruction. That is because we are trying to die, for it is only by dying that we can be reborn, and every love affair of significance is a metamorphosis. Some thoughts,

Dear Hipsters of H.C.

I feel like you don't get enough credit.
Sure, you think your music is better than everyone else's, sure, your pants are about 2 sizes 2 small, and sure - you make up about 1/2 of the first year population. But I still love you.

Happy Valentines Day!

Love, Mali Hopper

Dear The violet man,

I'm not writing this for you to read. I know you don't read The OMEN. I'm doing this for me.
Because you won't listen to me or talk to me or even be near me.
What happened? We were best friends, we were happy just hanging out and talking of randomness such as life and God. It wasn't until our first fight and us being apart when I realized I'm in love with you. Without a word you left and pretended I no longer exist. How dare you! I was patient of your flaws and you act high and mighty and say I wronged... If I did I'm sorry. You're the only one who understands me. Please, I don't want to be alone. Happy Valentines Day!

Love, The one you left behind and the OMEN!
